A Stage for the World's Greatest Writers

The William N. Skirball Writers Center Stage Series brings the literary world's best writers to Cleveland. This author series introduces new and established authors to the Cuyahoga County community to inspire learning, conversation and a sense of fellowship while raising funds for the Library's work.

ATTENDANCE FOR EACH EVENT:

- In Person: Up to 1,000 attendees
- Livestream: Up to 100 attendees

EVENTS PER SEASON:

- Each season, six events are held at the Maltz Performing Arts Center on the campus of Case Western Reserve University

Writers Center Stage is presented by the Cuyahoga County Public Library Foundation and its academic partner Case Western Reserve University. Funds raised from this series help support Library programs and services where the need is greatest, including in areas related to early childhood success, family engagement, student success, workforce development, and digital equity and inclusion.

The Milton and Tamar Maltz Performing Arts Center at Case Western Reserve University

1855 ANSEL ROAD, CLEVELAND, OH 44106

All shows will be held in the Milton and Tamar Maltz Performing Arts Center (MPAC) at The Temple-Tifereth Israel.

The Maltz Performing Arts Center blends historic architecture with modern design. With 1,200 seats, great acoustics, and a flexible stage, it hosts CWRU ensembles, concerts, and the Think Forum lecture series.
